

Get Your Xmas Savings Check Cashed AT PETTEE'S

And Start Your Xmas Shopping Today.

The thrifty, economical buyer will find a useful and practical gift here suitable for every member of the family. Truly—The Christmas Store of a Million Gifts. All of them useful and practical.

CHAFING DISH
like Illustration
12 oz.
Copper
Nickel
Plated
Electroplated to little size the glad jump
Very attractive appearance.
Price
Other styles from $1.50 up $6.50
First Floor

$5.00 Carving Set
3 piece set, Genuine Ring handles; sterling cutlery; S. M. made best quality steel.
Price
Other styles from $1.50 up.
First Floor

Free Gift and Toy Catalogue

Please mail me without charge
your Gift and Toy Catalogue.

Name _____
Address _____ T

China tea sets
Pretty decorations, complete set for six. Prices are up.
Embossed Tea Sets and Kitchen utensils, very serviceable, various assortments in the blue, green,
white and combination colors.
Prices from

6 c Up

Doll
Trunks
60c Up

WJ PETTEE & CO
HARDWARE

Mash Bags and Vanities
$1.00 Up

Events in Society

Harriet Duan Bentley.

Miss Lillian Edwards will entertain with a dancing party Friday evening at the Country club.

Miss Marcel Darling and Miss Mildred Dallas will entertain with a dance Saturday evening at the home of Miss Darling.

The K. B. P. club was entertained Monday by Miss Elizabeth Gardner. The scrapbooks were finished for the children's ward and the remainder of the afternoon was spent with needlework. The club will not meet again until after Christmas when it will meet with Miss Isabel Hardy.

Mrs. W. W. Witten, who has been the guest of Mrs. William J. Pettee and honored with so many pretty courtesies, expects to return to her home in Okmulgee.

Mrs. S. L. Maxwell was hostess Wednesday to the Pleasant Hour club. Miss Marguerite Mee of Centerfield, S. D., being an additional guest. The afternoon was spent with needlework.

Mrs. W. F. Kerr is convalescing from a week's illness.

Mrs. S. L. Maxwell was hostess Wednesday to the Pleasant Hour club. Miss Marguerite Mee of Centerfield, S. D., being an additional guest. The afternoon was spent with needlework.

The members of the Oak Park Embroidery club were entertained Wednesday by Mrs. Carl Mitchell. The afternoon was spent with needlework and some enjoyable piano selections by Miss Velma Mitchell. The meeting was assisted by Mrs. Vern Pondergast in serving, and Mrs. Pondergast will be the hostess next Wednesday with Miss Florence Bell Best.

The Music department of Sorosis met Wednesday in Sorosis hall. Poland was the subject of the lesson which was led by Miss Virginia Fitzgerald. Mrs. Mae Albertson gave a paper on the composers of Poland. Miss Jennette Gordon gave a sketch of Tschetschitzky, and Mrs. Frank Hobson gave his composition, "Two Larks." Mrs. H. D. Newman gave the Padewski "Minuet" and his "Chant du Voyageur." Mrs. Clarence Harris rendered "Maiden's Prayer" by Chopin, and Miss Ruth Stickney gave the Mazurka by Leschitzky and a Polish dance. Mmes. F. R. Bull and Frank Hobson gave a duet, a vase by Monizka. The club will meet next Wednesday with Mrs. Frank Hobson for the Christmas program.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will celebrate Organization day next Monday with Mrs. Robert P. Carpenter. A large attendance is urged and members are requested to bring their contributions to the Christmas box which will be packed at the meeting for the Martha Berry school at Rome, Ga.

Mrs. E. W. Stone of Shawnee is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Wright.

Mrs. N. DeWitt Allen entertained the Tuesday Auction club Wednesday afternoon. Miss Vera Bump and Mrs. Luther Jones playing the substitute hands. Miss Ethlyn Eastman made the top score of the afternoon and Mrs. J. M. Gayle was admitted to membership. The club will meet next Wednesday with Miss Florence Bell Best.

Mr. J. F. Johns who was called here to attend the funeral of his brother, Dr. William T. Johns of

consider fully the vitally important question of having

FAMILY WASHING done MOST THOR-

UOUSLY and MOST SANITARILY—besides at the

ever asked for such service—and how

but sending the work to US.

"Ready For Use"

The COST of family washing on this NEW plan has SURPRISED many housewives.

Why not give us a trial?

New State Laundry

C. F. HEIDBRINK, Mgr.

WALNUT 232.

DON'T SUFFER WITH YOUR TEETH

Nature Never Made a Decaying Tooth—Besides, Tooth Neglect is Costly.

We EXCEL IN SCIENTIFIC DENTISTRY. Our superior facilities enable us to supply you the highest grade of dental work, yet our prices are MODERATE. We have one of the best equipped dental parlors in the southwest, specializing in all branches of dentistry.

Best $1.50 Silver Filling - - - - - 50c

Best 22k Gold Crown - - - - - $3.00

SPECIAL PLATE VALUES
Our Wonder Rubber Plates—
(worth $25 and $15, $8 and $5.
Heaviest Bridge Work—
per tooth $3.00

(The New System)
129½ W. MAIN—OVER BEACON SHOE STORE
DR. R. C. WEST, MANAGER.

Muskogee, returned Wednesday evening to his home in Springfield, Ark. Mrs. J. H. Davis entertained the club Wednesday, additional guests being Mmes. Russell N. Striplin of Meridian, Miss.; George Braundur, T. H. Dolph and N. S. Sherman, Jr. High score was made by Mrs. A. R. Parker. The club will be entertained next Wednesday by Mrs. J. P. Brough, Jr.

A pleasant afternoon was spent by the members of the W. S. club Wednesday, who were entertained by Mrs. Carey J. Davenport. Arrangements were made for the evening for the husbands which will be given December 31 at the home of Mrs. Edward F. McKay. Mrs. Fred Hardy being the assisting hostess.

The New Century club members enjoyed Domestic Science day with Mrs. John Shirk, the assisting hostess being Mmes. John Wain, Hugh McClellan, J. N. McCormack, and Sadie Coffeen Knob. Mrs. Ben Harrison was voted to membership. Mrs. Knob gave two most amusing sketches on "Mistress and Maid" from the book, "Plates and Pictures" by Mary H. Krout. Mrs. G. Frost was a guest, gave a most interesting talk on "The Maid in the Home In Germany." Guests of the afternoon were Mrs. S. R. Smith and daughter Ethel of Bridgeport, who are the guests of Mrs. J. L. Daniels; Mrs. Frost, Miss Parker and Mrs. Ethel Shanahan of Atoka. The house was decorated in the German colors, and at the close of the luncheon in Kaffee Klatch was served. The club voted to endorse the nomination for the City Federation work. The next meeting Wednesday will be in the library.

The E. C. club was entertained Wednesday by Mrs. J. A. Horner, who had decorated her home with holiday suggestions of mistletoe and holly. Mrs. Frieda Koehn was a guest and at the game of cards high scores were made by Mmes. S. E. Babcock, Henry Pleschner, and A. B. Chandler. The club will meet December 23 with Mrs. Jack Jordan.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brooke will entertain six school friends with a slumber party Friday evening.

The members of the High Jinks club are issuing invitation for a dance to be given Christmas evening at the Country club.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Looney entertained the Seven o'Clock Dinner club Wednesday evening the only guest being Mrs. Looney's father, Dr. W. W. Corr of Nashville, Tenn. High scores at the game of auction were made by Judge George W. Clark and Mrs. J. F. Sharp. The time and place for the next meeting after the holidays will be announced later.

Mrs. M. L. Turner entertained the Duplicate Whist club Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Gerson and Mrs. Guy Turner playing the substitute hands. Top scores were made by Mrs. Gerson and Mrs. Rose Thomas. The club will not meet again until Wednesday, December 30, the hostess to be announced later.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will celebrate Organization day next Monday with Mrs. Robert P. Carpenter. A large attendance is urged and members are requested to bring their contributions to the Christmas box which will be packed at the meeting for the Martha Berry school at Rome, Ga.

Mrs. E. W. Stone of Shawnee is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Wright.

Mrs. N. DeWitt Allen entertained the Tuesday Auction club Wednesday afternoon. Miss Vera Bump and Mrs. Luther Jones playing the substitute hands. Miss Ethlyn Eastman made the top score of the afternoon and Mrs. J. M. Gayle was admitted to membership. The club will meet next Wednesday with Miss Florence Bell Best.

Mr. J. F. Johns who was called here to attend the funeral of his brother, Dr. William T. Johns of

consider fully the vitally important question of having

FAMILY WASHING done MOST THOR-

UOUSLY and MOST SANITARILY—besides at the

ever asked for such service—and how

but sending the work to US.

The meeting of the Thursday Bridge Luncheon club was postponed until Friday afternoon on account of conflicting engagements. Mrs. H. A. Craycroft will be the hostess.

Mrs. F. K. Van Vorhes of Guthrie spent Wednesday with Mrs. J. R. Cottingham, who had also Mrs. Frank O'Neal as guest.

Miss Madeline Cottingham and Ethel Lehr are expected home Friday of next week from New York where they have been attending school.

Mrs. Boston Wilson entertained quite informally Wednesday at luncheon for Mrs. W. W. Witten of Okmulgee, the guests being the old friends of Mrs. Witten. The luncheon tables were decorated with baskets of pink and yellow carnations, and Mrs. Witten was the recipient of a Mayberry candle in a pretty holder. The guests spent the afternoon with their Christmas needlework.

Mrs. H. P. Matibones entertained the Alpha Beta club Wednesday, the house being pleasantly decked with Christmas bells and festoons and red and white carnations. The afternoon was spent with needlework and musical numbers given by Mrs. Harlan Moreau and Ss. J. Osseckop. Guests of the club were Mrs. Moreau, Fred Lash, S. E. Condit, and T. A. Lalbey. The club will meet next week with Mrs. W. W. Holmes.

Mrs. E. Chotean Legg entertained Wednesday afternoon at cards for Mrs. A. T. Gibson of Chicago, her guests being Mmes. W. J. Gill, Charles Glazier, Regnor Harris, Albert Geiders, C. W. Flattery, Earl Shadaker, Lloyd Finley, Claude March, Milton Childress of Los Angeles, Cal., and Miss Gladys Ayland of Dallas. High score was made by Mrs. Harris, and Mrs. Gibson also was presented with a pretty favor. A dainty luncheon was served following the game.

Mrs. A. R. Gibson who has been the

NO MAKE-BELIEVE HERE.

Our advertising tells you exactly the kind of merchandise you will find at this store. The goods speak for themselves when you see them. If you don't know us, let the V.A.U. U.S. quoted, make us acquainted.

Scott-Halliburton Co.
SUCCESSORS TO THE MELLON CO.

DO YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING NOW.

It means so much to do your shopping early—time to enjoy the joy of making selections—fresh, new, exclusive things for gifts—intelligent assistance—prompt deliveries—few disappointments.

Sale Extraordinary: Value Giving Unprecedented

22 Silk Dresses $14.75 to $25 Values, $5.95

34 Silk Dresses $29.75 to $55 Values, $8.75

To the Manager of the Women's Garment Store we issued Imperative Orders to make a Clearaway of every Suit and Dress in the House that was bought prior to August. Sale starts at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

On last Saturday we sacrificed exactly Ninety Suits and made glad the hearts of every woman fortunate enough to get a suit or two suits. Some of the women appreciating the values to the extent of buying two instead of one. Now comes the more important sale tomorrow morning of every dress bought during the 1914 season before August. The sale starts at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning and extra salespeople will be ready to serve you. Come early and get your choice of these dresses, every one of which cost us more than the clearance price.

Two Pink Dresses worth $14.75, at $5.95
Two Lavender Dresses, worth $14.75, at $5.95
Three Heliotropes, worth $19.75, at $5.95
Two Wistaria Dresses, worth $21.75, at $5.95
Two Navy Dresses, worth $21.75, at $5.95
Two Gray Dresses, worth $22.50, at $5.95
Two Navy Checks, worth $23.75, at $5.95
Two Black Dresses, worth $25.00, at $5.95
One Sherry Green Dress, worth $25, at $5.95
Four Dresses, worth $25.00, at $5.95

One Open Brocade, worth $45, at $15
Six black and white stripe Quaker Dresses, at $17.50
Two black and white Checks, $39.75, at $15
Two shot rose Dresses, worth $45, at $15
One gray Dresses, worth $55.00, at $15
One peach Dress, worth $45.00, at $15
Two pink Dresses, worth $49.75, at $15
Two $45 Green Charmuse, pink trimmed, at $15
Two $45 Cafe au lait Dresses, at $15
Three brown satins, worth $41.75, at $15
One off-white crepe, worth $29.75, at $15

Think of it! Beautiful Charmuse Silk Dresses, Taffeta Crepe de Chine, Lace Combinations and Brocades that are rich at prices you never heard of before. Thirty-four in the lot.

For Baby's Happy Christmas—a Cap

Really, the assortment of dainty things for the baby in this store is nothing short of wonderful. And the caps! You should see them on the immense fourth floor. Here are some price reductions for Friday and Saturday that may not be repeated because the caps won't be here.

Usual Price	Sale Price
$1.50	$1.19
1.98	1.58
2.50	1.98
2.98	2.38
3.50	2.80
4.50	3.60

A HOUSE DRESS AT $1.48; VALUE $2.00.

A good quality of gingham or percale, belt-tipped, neat collars and cuffs, some turn back with lay down collars; others with embroidery or trimming—the values as high as $2. Special at $1.48.

KNIT HOODS AT $1.00.

These are inner-lined and have turn back cuff at face. They are in red, white or black. In women's and misses' sizes.

A NEW BLOUSE AT $6.50.

We are noted for our fine line of blouses; the vest being of green messaline; sleeves and "V" yoke of beautiful faille to match; standing collar, brass buttons as finish.

SALE OF COATS FOR CHILDREN.

A splendid assortment of coats for the little ones from 2 to 6 years of age on the Fourth Floor. In the lot will be found chinchillas in grays, blues and black; brown corduroy and other handsome materials.

Child's Coat at $2.80 instead of	$3.50
Child's Coat at $3.18 instead of	$4.00
Child's Coat at $3.50 instead of	$4.50
Child's Coat at $3.98 instead of	$4.98

These prices for three days only.

TOYS AND NOVELTIES

HANDSOME 14-Piece French Ivory Set—Consists of mirror, brush, comb, buffer, clothes brush, file, hook, show horn, scissors, cuticle knife, corn knife, hat brush and two jars, at $17.30

Another Handsome Set—Toilet and manicure combination. Price at $3.98

A Mal Pyralin Ivory Set—Consists of two heavy concave back military brush and a comb, at $6.9